

Presentation Rubric

	4	3	2	1
Explanation of occupation	States the name of the occupation. Describes clearly what a person in this occupation would do	States the name of the occupation and describes vaguely what a person in this occupation would do	States the name of the occupation and attempts to describe what the person in this occupation would do but is not clear enough for listeners to understand	States the name of the occupation but doesn't give any further elaboration
Use of images to prove argument	Uses at least three images and points out specific details that help support the claims being made.	Uses two images and points out specific details that help support the claims being made	Uses images but doesn't use specific details of these images to support the claims	Uses only 1 image
Location of goods being produced/shipped	Clearly explains what the goods produced are, where they are produced, and where they are shipped	Explains what the goods produced are, and either where they're produced, or where they are shipped	Explains what the goods produced are but doesn't mention where they are produced or where they're shipped	Doesn't mention the goods that are produced
How occupation benefited	Clearly defines how the occupation benefitted from the slave trade and uses at least 2 specific examples from the images given to support claims	Clearly defines how the occupation benefitted from the slave trade and uses 1 specific example from the images given to support claims	Defines how the occupation benefitted from the slave trade but doesn't use any of the images to support the example	Defines how the occupation benefitted from the slave trade but doesn't give any elaboration
Direct/Indirect	Clearly explains how the occupation was either a direct or indirect job related to the slave trade by using specific facts found in the images they received	Explains how the occupation was direct or indirect, but doesn't use images to support their information	States whether the occupation was direct or indirect but doesn't give a clear understanding to the listener as to why	States whether the occupation was a direct or indirect job related to the slave trade but no attempt to explain why