

2006-2007 Honor Roll of Contributors

Celebrating the financial investment made by alumni and friends from July 1, 2006 - June 30, 2007

School of Education

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Fall 2007

Dear Alumni and Friends,

Sharing the stories of extraordinary opportunities afforded to our students and faculty because of the generosity of alumni and friends is one of the highlights of this publication. Our Honor Roll of Contributors not only celebrates the names of our donors but also provides encouragement to our faculty and students that their work is valued.

As a benefactor to our School, you will be pleased to know that we are excelling! As you read in this edition of The Carolina Slate, recent rankings from U.S. News & World Report put our School in the top 10 percent in the nation and highlighted our Educational Leadership program as number 10 for its specialty area (www.usnews.com). These rankings reflect positively on our School but they are only one indication of our success. The achievements of our alumni tell the real story of our accomplishments, and your investment in our School allows us to create these outstanding outcomes every day!

Funding quality programs continues to be a challenge for our School. Balancing the commitment to sustain both vibrant academic programs and a rigorous research agenda makes us unique from many other schools of education and creates a more complex mission for our School. State funds and tuition pay a small percentage of what it takes to recruit and retain a stellar faculty and to sustain and enhance the excellent programs that are the hallmark of our School. Private contributions make a difference as evidenced in the outcomes afforded the School through the success of the Carolina First Campaign. The annual fund played an important role in meeting our campaign goal. Most importantly, the annual fund plays an essential role in sustaining and enhancing the fiscal strength of our School.

Thank you for making a difference at the School of Education!

Some people say that teaching is a calling, and that is true in my case. Upon coming to Carolina, I initially considered a career in teaching high school history but switched to elementary education, realizing that working with children is my passion. The School's Willie Hall Kennedy Scholarship, a merit-based annual award that supports a rising junior who has been admitted to a teacher education program, has helped me in fulfilling this dream. Thanks to the generosity of the Kennedy family, the financial stress that comes with paying for a college education has been lessened, both for me and for my parents.

The Willie Hall Kennedy Scholarship was established by brothers Harold, Harvey and Michael Kennedy in memory of their grandmother, a lifelong teacher.

For me, teaching is like performing on a stage. As an Elementary Education major, I feel my field placement at Club Boulevard Elementary School in Durham is giving me real-life experience on a different kind of stage – the classroom. Since beginning my placement this semester, I have enjoyed watching my students learn and grow. Like them, I continue to progress and take on more responsibility, so I will be prepared to become a licensed educator next year. People often say that many lessons cannot be learned in a classroom. But for a prospective teacher, the classroom is the most important place to learn, whether here at Carolina or at a field placement site.

I was born a teacher. Despite being the youngest child in my family, I taught my older sister how to tie her shoes. As a fourth-year doctoral student in Culture, Curriculum and Change, I've come a long way since then. This past year, I had the opportunity to benefit from the Malloy Travel Fund to further my dissertation work in mathematics education. The fund paid the plane fare and conference fees for me to attend the annual meeting of the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics in Atlanta. I made a research presentation, participated in several seminars and networked with other graduate students who, like me, viewed the conference as an incredible learning experience.

Doctor of Philosophy in Education, 2008

The Malloy Travel Fund was established by School of Education Professors William (retired) and Carol Malloy to fund professional development opportunities for education graduate students.

* UNC-Chapel Hill alumni other than School of Education

^ Deceased

This year we will fund up to six small grants for our faculty to conduct pilot studies related to the betterment of preschool through 12th-grade education. The purpose of the awards is to provide the foundation for faculty to submit competitive proposals to external funding agencies for larger investigations. We appreciate the remarkable generosity of Lezley (A.B. '90, M.Ed. '95, Ph.D. '98) and Jeff (A.B. '89, M.B.A. '93) Hoffman, whose gift enabled the establishment of the seed grants this year, and the matching contribution from UNC-Chapel Hill. The seed grants will bolster our faculty's research agendas and strengthen the research capacity of our School.

Jill Fitzgerald
Interim Dean
School of Education

The Lezley and Jeff Hoffman Research Award for Grant Initiation was established by alumni, Lezley and Jeff Hoffman, with a matching contribution from the UNC-Chapel Hill Office of Research and Economic Development.

The School of Education thanks the many alumni and friends who made financial contributions from July 1, 2006 through June 30, 2007. We have made every effort to produce an accurate list of contributors. If an error has occurred, please notify Laurie Norman, director of alumni relations, at laurie_norman@unc.edu or (919) 843-6979.

The Honor Roll of Contributors is published annually by the Office of the Dean and the Office of External Relations. Visit us on the Web at <http://soe.unc.edu>.
